Nordic Ski Bus 2019

On Thursdays and weekends through the winter we go on bus trips to the Cascades for cross country skiing and snowshoe trips. We try to go to a new destination each trip and pick the spot based on what looks like the best possible weather and snow conditions. Over the past many years we have had some very memorable days coasting through pillows of powder along scenic ridge tops, and plunging into groves of old growth trees on a silent winter day with flakes drifting down all around. Our range is from Mt. Baker to Mt. Rainier and everywhere in between. Each bus series includes five (5) trips that run every other week through the season from January to early March. The Saturday bus starts on 1/5 (January 5th), Federal Way Sundays start 1/6, Thursdays begin 1/3, and the Sunday bus starts 1/13. We leave town about 8am returning usually by about 5pm. We have pickups in Seattle, Bellevue, and Federal Way before the bus whisks us away to the fresh air and sparkling snow of the Cascade Range. Please come and join us for a winter of new adventures. Bus series cost is $210 plus your annual membership in the club is $20 or $25 for families this year. (5 Bus Trip Season $235)

One World Outing Club Special Trips

12/2 TEANAWAY BUTTE: We have skied up the east flank from Jungle and Rye Creek but never up the southern ridge. This route offers some sweeping views of the Teanaway Valley on the way up the ridge to the summit. With two loop options on the return. Cost $47

12/20 HUCKLEBERRY MOUNTAIN SKI: In the North Cascades off the Suiattle River is a pleasant forest road ski to amazing vistas on this fire lookout ridge top. This is the time to go as during the summer the long switchback hike to the same has no free downhill coast on the way down! Cost $47

1/13,2/10,3/3 SNOWSHOE DAY TRIPS: A great opportunity to spend a day snowshoeing in the Cascades, each trip will be to a different destination. These are full day trips and offer the opportunity to make it to the top of a summit or just shuffle along a crystal clear stream $47/trip

1/14-15 HURRICANE RIDGE, DEER PARK: This is the highest point reachable during the winter, in Olympic National Park. Pitched between the Ocean and Mt. Olympus the views are absolutely stunning on a clear day. Cost $227

1/28 -29 LIBERTY & WILLIAMS CREEK: This area has different ski loops depending on the snow level and your energy reserves! The multiple ridge lines offer views of Table & Red Mountains, Blewett Pass, and ties into tour routes north and east of here. In 1974 Liberty was added to the National Register of Historic Places. Cost $177

The Outing Club LLC Remote Trips & Travel

1/21-25 BC POWDER HIGHWAY v.1:

Perhaps better named the road to Awesome. The Kootenay Rockies has perhaps the highest concentration of ski options in the world: downhill, AT, cross-country, cat, and heli skiing, some of the best snow in southern BC. Cost $1,182

2/4-12 SCOTLAND; MOUNTAINS AND CASTLES:

There is really nothing else quite like them! These incredible structures stand as awe-inspiring monuments to the life of the Scottish people in centuries past. It has a tumultuous history of clan rivalries, and repeated invasions from the Normans, Romans and Vikings. There are over 3000 castles in this country each with their own unique story. Northern Scotland is roughly the same latitude as the capitols of Norway and Sweden and has recently embraced the joys of winter recreation. We will ski and tour Scotland and London on this trip to the British Isl's. Cost $2660

2/15-18 PRESIDENT'S DAY AT MT. SPOKANE:

Mt. Spokane and 49 Deg. North have become a magnet for tour skiers and snowshoers over the past few years, with a half a dozen trail systems and an abundance of wildlife. The Selkirk Mountains are one of the last remaining US (lower 48) refuges for Caribou herds. With a little luck we may see some. Local wildlife listings make this forest sound a lot like Alaska: caribou, moose, wolf, lemming, grizzly bear. Though most of the bear will be in hibernation. Cost $396

2/25-27 ALPINE LAKES HIGH CAMP:

There are some new owners at the fabulous Scottish Lakes High Camp. This is a snowcat access only lodge and village of mountain cabins in the powder snow of Eastern Washington Cost $535

3/4-7 3 DAY OLYMPICS, SKI TRAVERSE:

This three day backcountry ski traverse will have us poised between the Strait of Juan De Fuca and the summit of Mt. Olympus. It is hard to imagine a more scenic place to camp out, with tele/AT ski options every day. Cost $250

3/11-14 EUGENE OREGON:

The rugged, heavily forested Willamette Pass area straddles the crest of the Cascade Mountains southeast of Eugene. This 5,126 ft. pass marks the divide between Willamette National Forest on the west side, and Deschutes National Forest. Although easily accessible, this area and Santiam Pass to the north, only skied by the locals. Cost $657

3/18-24 PRINCE GEORGE TO PRINCE RUPERT::

This year Prince George will host the Paralympic Nordic Events and has in the past hosted the Canadian Winter games. Ten percent of Smithers population are members of the local Nordic club so locals embraces tour skiing at a whole new level here. We will also tour the BC Coast Range on this trip. Cost $1,447
