2/26-28 ALPINE LAKES HIGH CAMP

There are some new owners up in the high country of eastern Washington. Justin and Austin Donohue have taken over the operation from Chris Hanson just this year, we will miss Don and Chris and their huge contribution connecting people and the outdoors. So its time to check out the new program so come with us to the Chiwaukum Mountains high country west of Leavenworth, where snow piles up in deep drifts of light powder, where skies are blue most every day, and where you can glide silently up through snow-covered open woods to view the spectacular 7,000' and 8,000' peaks of the North Central Cascades. At the end of the day, relax in the lodge or wood fired hot tub, then its off to enjoy a soft warm bed in one of the wood heated cabins neatly tucked away in the woods near McCue Ridge. We will stay in nicely appointed cabins at 5,000' just east of the Alpine Lakes area, near Loch Eileen, Lake Julius, and Lake Ethel. More than 25 mi. of marked trails traverse the basin here, but the real attraction is higher yet. Just above the lake basin is an alpine ridge. At 6,500 feet it is devoid of all but a few clusters of larches. The contours on the ridge are broad and gentle an unusual profile for a high altitude location. Measuring several miles long and perhaps a mile wide and sloping east, the area provides five star picturesque touring and telemarking. This trip works well for alpine touring/tele, moderately skilled tour skiers, and snowshoers of all ability levels. Snowmobile transit is provided for everyone on the way in and out. The area is also the gateway to one of the best one day ski traverses in the North Cascades Mountains. Provided: lodging, maps, 3 meals a day. Dates 2/26-28 Cost $545
